Ticket 1005 Subject: Google Is Missing

Assignee: Open

Raised by: Florence Costa, Logistics, 10 min ago

Category: Printing/Peripherals

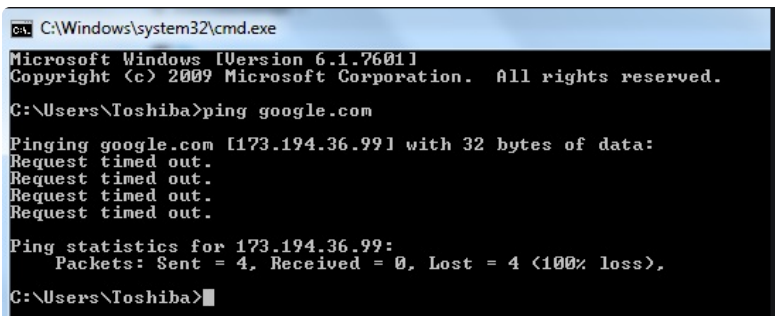

Priority: Med

Message:

I am working from home and can't reach www.google.com (<http://www.google.com/>)  to research shipping quotes.

Follow-Up From Help Desk Associate Jen:

I had the user open a CMD window and issue the command ping and tracert to www.google.com. This is the result:

Ticket 2002 Subject: Dell Machine Making Clicking Sounds, not Connecting to Windows DesktopAssignee: OpenRaised by: Juan Delarosa, Human Resources, 11 min agoCategory: Booting IssuePriority: MedMessage:

My Dell OptiPlex 9020 Mini Tower will not go to the Windows desktop. I heard a series of audible sounds, like Morse code?!? I think the pattern is one, followed by three, then two. What does that mean?

Ticket 2003 Subject: Printer Leaving Streaks on PageAssignee: OpenRaised by: Gianna Bianchi, Talent Development, 17 min agoCategory: Printer IssuePriority: MedMessage:

Every time I print, there is an ugly vertical streak down the page. I have to provide printed instructions to the 125 models who will walk the runway in the upcoming Settimana della moda (Milan Spring Fashion Week) in a few hours! HELP!!!!

Ticket 2004 Subject: Adobe Illustrator Throwing Errors

Assignee: Open

Raised by: Tamara Bisset, Creative
Director, 04 min ago

Category: Software Issue

Priority: High

Message:

Several of my designers using Adobe's Illustrator application are experiencing the software running slowly, and at times, error messages appear, like the one below:

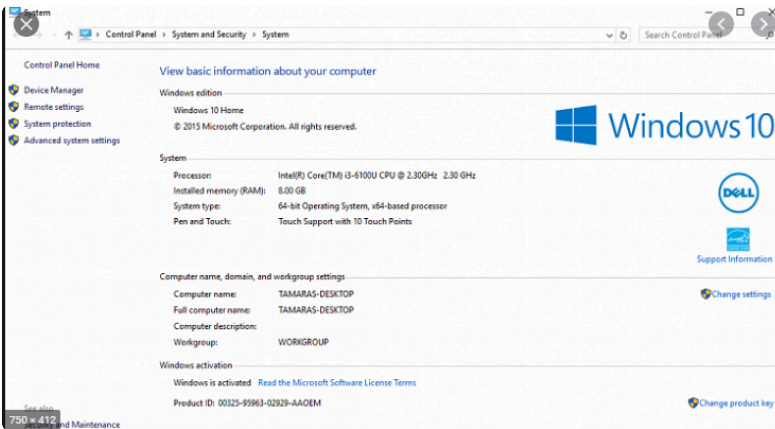

Source: Adobe

Follow-Up from Help Desk Associate Jen:

I've reviewed the machine's device manager to determine the hardware configuration (see image below).

I looked up the requirements for Adobe Illustrator. Minimum requirements are. Intel I5 processor, 4 GB RAM, NVIDIA GeForce 970.

Ticket 2005 Subject: Can't Connect to Online Shared Drive

Assignee: Open

Raised by: Blake Chaudhary, Sales Inventory Analyst

Category: Network Connectivity Issue

Priority: High

Message:

I need to access my sales projections on the shared drive. I could access them yesterday afternoon, no problem. My boss is really leaning on me to get those figures in and he needs access right away.

Follow-Up from Help Desk Associate Jen:

When I had Blake do an IPCONFIG for me, he read his IP address as 169.254.2.8. The network address for his unit is 10.20.30.x. I am not sure why it is different. What do you think is going on?

Ticket 3001 Subject: No Internet ConnectionAssignee: OpenRaised by: Michelle Silva, Brand StrategistCategory: Network InfrastructurePriority: MedMessage:

I can't reach the site www.pinterest.com on my machine. My colleague in the next office said he also cannot access the internet using Firefox. I know some network guys installed a new wireless router in the office last night as I spoke to them when I was leaving. Could that have something to do with it?

Follow-Up from Help Desk Associate Jen:

I looked up the new wireless router networking settings I am displaying below. Do you know what is wrong?

Ticket 3002 Subject: Blue Sad Face?

Assignee: Open

Raised by: Alejandro Luiz, Window Stylist

Category: Computer Crashing

Priority: Med

Message:

I was trying to share my digital mock-ups with Gabrielle, my supervisor. Now my computer screen is all green with a sad face. It says something about "critical process died."

I took this picture of it with my phone: Please help. I have a deadline of 5 p.m. today.

 Windows blue screen

Ticket 3003 Subject: Frozen ComputerAssignee: OpenRaised by: Bettina Müller, Fashion DesignCategory: Computer CrashingPriority: MedMessage:

My computer is totally frozen. All I see is an error message that says, "controller has failed."

I have a short deadline to pitch for a new line of bags to be show at the Fashion Goods and Accessories Exposition in Osaka.

I tried rebooting my machine, but the problem comes back after a few minutes. I have an OptiPlex GX240.

Ticket 3004 Subject: Computer Is Slow

Assignee: Open

Raised by: Kory Novak, Brand Manager

Category: Computer Slow

Priority: Med

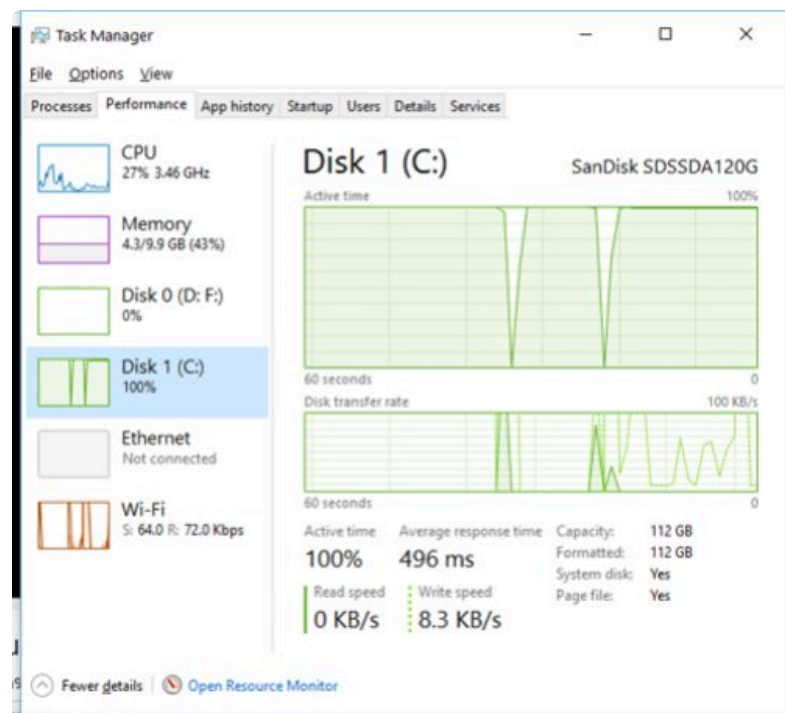

Message:

My computer is taking a really long time to save files. Sometimes I see a read-only error, and some applications are freezing. Everything is running slow.

Follow-Up from Help Desk Associate Jen:

When I was remoted into Kory's desktop, I was able to take this screenshot from Task Manager.

Here's a screenshot of the error dialog I'm seeing:

Ticket 3005 Subject: Restart/Update LoopAssignee: OpenRaised by: Marci Wallace, Buyer, Tokyo OfficeCategory: Windows UpdatePriority: HighMessage:

When I turned on my PC at the office today, it started to boot, and then started doing a Windows 10 update. But it keeps trying to reboot and update. It is on the sixth try and still won't boot up; it's just the same Windows update install over and over. What should I do?

Follow-Up from Help Desk Associate Jen:

Windows update is not completing, sending Marci's PC into an endless loop.

From my experience, there can be several underlying issues that may cause Windows Update to fail. You may need to try several different things to resolve the issue. I recommend consulting Microsoft's knowledge base.
